BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that sandal produce of Kigga belonged to the Sri Rishyasringa Swami temple till the Survey Settlement was introduced in Koppa Taluk, after which cash grant was sanctd & the original concession was cancelled. Lands have been recently endowed as before to the temple & so request the forest produce may be made over as before also to the Institution.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Pet says that a subject having been brought forward in the Dasara Representative meetings that similar to the Kalasa temple to which was given all the forest produce of the 5 villages of Yadadali, Yadadal, Koguder, Sandagatta & Marakki, all belonging to the Kigga magane, the similar produce may be made over to the Rishya-Sringeswara Swami also, Govt were pleased to order that all the forest produce of the inam lands endowed to the temple be handed over to it. Since the inam land is entirely wet and garden, Petr prays that the forest produce of the 5 villages mentd above may be made over to the Sri Rishya Sringeswara Swami temple as formerly.

2. Govt order No 235-D of 10.8.98 recognises the temple's right to sandalwood from the inam lands endowed to it in addn to any separate sandalwood allowance enjoyed by the temple. (Vide file No 57 of 1897).

Order solicited. (The Inam Asst Comr of Kadur's memdm in the file gives a clear history of the temple's right to the sandalwood from the inam lands).

Sir,
Adverting to your official Memorandum No. 309 Misc 761-09-2 dated 29th July 1910 forwarding for investigation and Submission of detailed report, petition No 2351 6.1910 from Mr. Chennakeshava- claim of the Sri Rishya
Sringa

Sree Rishya Sringeswara Swami temple at Kigga, Koppa Taluk, to Sandalwood and timber growing in the jungles attached to the villages of Yedadale, Gandugatta, Yedadalu, Kogodu and Mearkal of Koppa Taluk, I have the honor to state that it is clearly seen from the Government Orders Nos. 235-8 and 782-5 dated 10 August 1898 and 23rd January 1909 respectively, that the temple has a right to Sandalwood, timber and other forest produce growing on its Inam lands. That the lands endowed to the temple do not comprise any unassessed waste lands or jungles attached to the 5 villages referred referred to in Mr. Ekambareshwara Rao's petition under reference is evident from Government order No. 10655-7/69 dated 15 December 1891 which has clearly defined the lands confirmed to the temple as Sarvamanyam.

2. It is also ascertained from the Inam Department that the lands which have been confirmed to the temple as Sarvamanyam in the year 1891 are identically the same which were resumed to Government in 1877 when a Cash grant of ~~Rs~~ 2057-10-0 was settled in lieu of land endowments of the temple

3 Besides, it is clear from para

ment order quoted above,

the same lands which represented a beriz or assessment value of Rs 2080-and which were being enjoyed by the temple as Inams according to the Inamti accounts of 1838 ~
were confirmed as Sarvamanyams
in the year 1894.

4- In the circumstances set forth
above, I am of opinion that the temple was not in the ~ enjoyment of Sandalwood growing on the unassessed lands and jungles attached to the 5 villages
referred to in Mr. Chennakeshva Rao's petition, nor do the records
clearly prove that the temple
was exercising any such right.

Moreover

Moreover Mr. Chennakeshva Rao has failed to produce any evidence to establish any such right on behalf of the temple I therefore beg to state that the claim put forward by Mr. Chennakeshva Rao in the matter is in my opinion untenable.

5) The Vernacular records ending with the Inam Superintendents Yadi No. 50 dated 10.12.1913 bearing on the Subject are herewith submitted for kind reference and return.

Mrs 761-09-8 9.9.09

Government agree with the Deputy Commissioner in considering that the claim of the temple to the sandalwood and produce of the unassessed and waste lands of the villages in question has not been made out. The temple is not even the exclusive owner of all the assessed lands under cultivation in these villages ~~under cultivation~~. Mr. Chennakesava Rao will accordingly be informed that the Govt are unable to admit admit the claim put forward by him on behalf of the temple.
